Dear Dr. Sample No Poster,

On behalf of the organizing committee, we cordially invite you to attend “Protostars and Planets VII” (PP7) on April 10 - 15, 2023. The conference will be held at Kyoto International Conference Center, Kyoto, JAPAN.

When you are in the conference, you will be asked to attend oral and poster sessions and provide astronomical knowledge based on your expertise to facilitate discussions. Your visit will certainly contribute significantly to the success of our international conference PP7.

Should you require more information about the conference, please visit our conference website <http://ppvii.org/>. You may also contact the organizers via e-mail <inquiry@ppvii.org>. We look forward to seeing you in Kyoto.

Sincerely,

Takayuki Muto, PhD
PP7 Local Organizing Committee Chair
Associate Professor of Physics
